

Paul's Epistle to the Laodiceans

1 Paul, an apostle not of men and not through man, but through Yache Christ, to the brethren who are in Laodicea:

2 Grace to you and peace from Alahayim the Father and the Lord Yache Christ.

3 I thank Christ in all my prayer that you continue in him and persevere in his works, in expectation of the promise at the day of judgment.

4 And may you not be deceived by the vain talk of some people who tell tales that they may lead you away from the truth of the gospel which is proclaimed by me.

5 And now may Alahayim grant that those who come from me for the furtherance of the truth of the gospel (...) may be able to serve and to do good works for the well-being of eternal life.

6 And now my bonds are manifest, which I suffer in Christ, on account of which I am glad and rejoice.

7 This to me leads to eternal salvation, which itself is brought about through your prayers and by the help of the Holy Spirit, whether it be through life or through death.

8 For my life is in Christ and to die is joy.

9 And his mercy will work in you, that you may have the same love and be of one mind.

10 Therefore, beloved, as you have heard in my presence, so hold fast and work in the fear of Alahayim, and eternal life will be yours.

11 For it is Alahayim who works in you

12 And do without hesitation what you do.

13 And for the rest, beloved, rejoice in Christ and beware of those who are out for the sordid gain.

14 May all your requests be manifest before Alahayim, and be steadfast in the mind of Christ.

15 And do what is pure, true, proper, just, and lovely.

16 And what you have heard and recieved, hold in your heart, and peace will be with you.

17 Salute all the brethren with the holy kiss.

18 The saints salute you.

19 The grace of the Lord Yache Christ be with your spirit.

20. And see that (this epistle) is read to the Colossians and that of the Colossians to you.
